Shri Sanjay Agrawal, counsel for the petitioner.

Shri A.S. Kachhawaha, Dy. Govt. Advocate for the State, on advance copy.

Heard.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that it is a matter relating to compassionate appointment. The petitioner's father died on 1-6-1998. Learned State counsel submits that the petitioner's father was a sales man and petitioner's eligibility has to be checked. He further submits that for the present the petitioner may be directed to make a representation before the concerned competent authorities and if such representation is made, the same shall be considered and decided.

Having considered and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, in the opinion of this Court, ends of justice will be served if a direction is given to the petitioner to make a detailed representation raising his grievances before the competent authority of the respondents along with a copy of the petition and this order, within three weeks from today, and on such representation being filed, the competent authority of the respondents shall decide the same on its own merits in accordance with law as early as possible preferably within three months from the date of receipt of the representation. If required, the petitioner may also be heard.

It is made clear that if any grievance of the petitioner still remains, he may avail the alternative remedy available under the law.

With the aforesaid observations, this petition stands disposed of.

Certified copy as per rules.
